Bootleggers Fined.

During the trial of Wm. Miller, charged with bootlegging in the negro suburb of Clayville, in Squire Fretwell's court Friday it developed that Miller was in the employ of William Alexander, another negro, at the time it was alleged he sold liquor without a license, and Justice Fretwell caused a warrant to be issued for Alexander charging the same offense. The latter was arrested by Deputy Sheriff W. T. Talbott and when tried was found guilty and his fine fixed at $100. Miller, who had already served a twenty day sentence in jail was fined $35.

This Season's Goods.

We have no old stock to work off on the public as 'bargains' but we certainly have some great values in this season's style that we don't want to carry over. The cash will work wonders at our store for the next two weeks. 24 ft. MITCHELL & BLAKEMORE.

Rains and Lightning Does Damage.

A rain and electrical storm passed over the city and county Friday that did great damage. The precipitation was heavy and continued for more than an hour, washing fields badly. In the northern and eastern portions of the county the storm was accompanied by considerable wind that uprooted trees. James E. Clay had a number of cattle killed by lightning. At Little Rock John Brabmet had a valuable horse killed by an electric volt.

In this city a bolt of lightning struck a tree in the stable lot of Ames McClure on line street, killing two horses.

Searching for Son.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Templeton, of Appalachia, Va., were in Paris Saturday in search of their son, Napoleon Templeton, aged seventeen years, who left his home about two weeks ago without the consent of his parents.

On Friday night Patrolman Thomas arrested a white boy at the Louisville & Nashville depot who had alighted from a freight train, that answered the description of young Templeton. At the request of the boy, who promised to leave town, he was released by the officer and he departed in the direction of Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Templeton, upon arriving in this city Saturday morning, requested the officers to keep a lookout for the runaway and gave a description which tallied exactly with the boy. Patrolman Thomas had placed under arrest at the depot. Chief of Police Elgin telephoned to the officials of all adjoining towns to be on the lookout for the boy.

A reward of $25, which is now in the hands of Chief Elgin, will be given for the return of the boy. Following is the description given by his parents: Five feet eight inches tall and weighs about 140 pounds; black hair and blue eyes; wore a soft hat and gray suit.

DEATHS.

—After an illness of more than a year's duration, Mrs. Mollie Mann, wife of Mr. Fletcher Mann, of Lexington, formerly of Paris, died at nine o'clock Friday morning at the Runnol's Hospital, in Indianapolis, Ind., where she had been taken a few days before in the hope of improving her health.

The funeral services took place at the family residence in Lexington Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, the Rev. J. P. Strother of the First Methodist church at Danville, and life long friend of the family officiating.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Mann is survived by three children, Mr. H. W. Mann, bookkeeper of First National Bank of Paris Mrs. William Bryant of Paris, and Mr. Edward K. Mann, telegraph operator for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company in Lexington.

For many years Mrs. Mann had been prominently identified with the Methodist church and when a resident of Paris was an active and consistent member.

The pall bearers were: Dr. Johns, M. L. Harris, J. L. Watkins, C. R. Thompson, M. H. Beard, T. B. Carr, of Lexington, and H. A. Power and B. January, of this city.

—Alexander Talbott, who conducted a grocery store on South Main street, died Friday of Bright's disease. Mr. Talbott was 68 years old, and was a soldier in the Confederate army.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Williams of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Frank Hannigan, with whom he resided. The funeral services were held at the grave in the cemetery in Millersburg Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. H. C. Burroughs. The pall bearers were Richard Allen, T. A. Vimont Jos. A. Miller John Layson, William Layson and John Mock.

—Miss Kate Jameson, aged 26 years, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Jameson, was found dead in bed at her home on Pleasant street. Miss Jameson had only recently returned from a visit to relatives in Texas, and had not been feeling well.

apparently felt no discomfort. She was usually permitted to sleep late and the family made no effort to arouse her until after eight o'clock when it was discovered that she had died during the night. The immediate cause of her death was heart failure. Miss Jameson was beloved by a large circle of friends who will learn of her untimely death with much regret.

The funeral services were held at the residence Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock conducted by Rev. R. H. Crossfield, of Lexington. The interment was in the Paris cemetery. The pall bearers were: N. A. Moore, Stamps Moore, Perry Hutchcraft, Thomas Collier, Palmer Graham and Lytleton Purnell.

—Col. John W. Powling, editor and owner of the Nicholas Advocate, died at his home in Carlisle Saturday night. Mr. Powling had been in poor health for some time. On January 2, while attending a meeting of the Carlisle City Council he suffered a stroke of paralysis. For a time his condition seemed to improve, and his friends were hopeful of his recovery, but about three weeks ago he suffered a relapse and since that time his death has been daily expected.

Colonel Powling was one of the most prominent newspaper men in Kentucky. He was also prominent in secret society circles, being a leader in the Masonic and Knights of the Macabees lodges. He served the city of Carlisle for several terms as City Clerk, and at the time of his death was secretary of the Ninth District Publishers' Association and a director in the Carlisle Commercial Club.

He leaves surviving a wife and one adopted daughter.

—Mrs. Laura Trundle Bower, aged thirty-six years, wife of Mr. J. A. Bower, died at her home on Cypress street at an early hour yesterday morning.

Mrs. Bower was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Trundle. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and a woman of excellent Christian character.

She was born and reared in Bourbon and lived here the greater part of her life. About five years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. Bower, while her parents were residents of St. Louis, returning to this city to make her future home.

Besides her husband she is survived by her little son, John Trundle Bower, who is only a few days old, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Trundle, who made their home with Mr. and Mrs. Bower, and two sisters, Mrs. H. D. Haynes, of Fern Bank, O., and Mrs. James E. Brock, of St. Louis, the two latter arriving yesterday to attend the funeral.

The funeral services will be held from the residence on Cypress street this afternoon at 5 o'clock, services by Rev. M. T. Chandler, of the Methodist church. Burial in Paris cemetery.

The pall bearers will be: J. H. Haggard, W. C. Dodsan, James McClure, Dr. C. C. Daugherty, Dr. Frank Fithian, W. H. Anderson.

Text Book Commission to Meet Wednesday

The Text Book Commission for Bourbon county composed of Prof. E. M. Costello, Prof. J. S. Johnson, Messrs D. B. Lisle, C. A. McMillan and Miss Mabel Robbin, will meet in the office of the county superintendent in the court house Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock to select books for the county high school.
